BOOK SYNOPSIS

This book is for anyone living in a rental, with Mom & Dad, or in any setting where the next logical step might be to buy a home. They will find out whether to do so and how to best bring it about. • A Nolo bestseller for many years, fully updated to reflect current market conditions. • Thirty-nine percent of U.S. home buyers are first-timers. "According to Realtor.org." • The "inventory" or number of homes for sale is at last stabilizing, partly due to the fact that rising prices mean that homeowners who might like to sell can now do so for more than they owed on their (previously "underwater") mortgage. "According to Huffingtonpost.com." • This book makes the toughest parts of the transaction understandable, such as how to interpret seller disclosures, sign a contract that covers the legal bases, and negotiate to a successful closing. • Contains insights from a panel of industry experts.
